"PORTRAIT IN SEVEN SHADES" U.S. TOUR IN MARCH

WHO/WHAT/WHEN:

Jazz at Lincoln Center announces the CD release of Portrait in Seven Shades, composed by jazz reedman Ted Nash and performed by the world-renowned Jazz at Lincoln Center Orchestra with Wynton Marsalis.

Portrait in Seven Shades, the Jazz at Lincoln Center Orchestra's first CD of original music in nearly four years, will be in stores and available digitally at online retailers on February 2, 2010. The CD is released by Jazz at Lincoln Center and is the first title under a distribution agreement with The Orchard.

Nash's suite consists of seven movements, each inspired by a master of modern art: Chagall, Dali, Matisse, Monet, Picasso, Pollack and Van Gogh. Special guests on the recording are Nathalie Bonin (violin), Wycliffe Gordon (tuba) and Bill Schimmel (accordion).

To celebrate the CD release, Ted Nash, the Jazz at Lincoln Center Orchestra with Wynton Marsalis and special guests Nathalie Bonin, Clark Gayton (tuba) and Bill Schimmel will perform the Portrait in Seven Shades suite and other pieces inspired by the visual arts.

These live performances will be held at Rose Theater in Frederick P. Rose Hall, home of Jazz at Lincoln Center, on February 4-6, 2010 at 8pm. Featuring lighting design and projections of the artwork behind the performers, the concert will be a multi-media event. Pre-concert discussions, hosted by Ken Druker, are free for ticketholders on February 4 & 6.

The Jazz at Lincoln Center Orchestra will also embark on the "Portrait in Seven Shades" U.S. Tour in March. The band will perform selections from the suite as well as a repertoire to include tunes by Count Basie, Mary Lou Williams and others.
