WHAT/WHO:

The Coca-Cola Generations In Jazz Festival, which began September 6, 2010, continues through October 10, 2010. It features a full array of jazz performers from 15-92 years of age, a multi-generational exploration of the full spectrum of jazz tradition from Louis Armstrong and Coleman Hawkins to Dizzy Gillespie and Charlie Parker to Miles Davis and John Coltrane. Celebrating the great legends of jazz while seeking to create new ones, Dizzy's Club Coca-Cola provides a happy home for musicians and listeners of all ages and backgrounds -- all speaking a common language of swing.

"At Dizzy's Club Coca-Cola, friends can gather together, enjoy a refreshing Coca-Cola and Open Happiness while listening to some of the best live jazz in the world," said Beatriz Perez, Chief Marketing Officer, Coca-Cola North America.
